HABEAS CORPUS
WRIT FOR MARKS

WILL COME UP BEFORE JUDGE DOLE ON THE COMING FRIDAY—CONVICTED OF HORSE-STEALING

Judge Dole, during the noon recess today granted a writ of habeas corpus for John Marks, tried last week in Judge Lindsay's court of horse stealing convicted, and sentenced to five years imprisonment. The writ is returnable on Friday next at 10 o'clock.

As stated in The Star yesterday, George A. Davis, Attorney for Marks, brought the matter before Judge Dole's attention yesterday morning, but it has not been until the time above stated that the Court has had time to pass on it.

The matter was gotten into the United States Court on the claim and affidavit of Davis and his client that the Federal constitution was violated in Judge Lindsay's refusal to summon a material witness for the defense. Davis declares that he proposes to carry the matter through to the United States Supreme court if necessary.

GETTING READY

DELAY CAUSED BY COMMITTEES WAITING TO SUBMIT FACTS IN POINT.

There came near being an arbitration board to arbitrate the matter of arbitration between the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association and the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company in regard to the wages to be paid the engineers who ask for a considerable advance. Some days ago arbitration was agreed to and the engineers chose Attorney Frank Thompson to represent them, while the company selected Attorney H. E. Cooper to hold up their end. Those two were to have appointed a third to complete the arbitration board, but since there were no submissions of facts upon which to arbitrate, the two chosen were in no hurry to appoint the third. There was some backwardness in beginning, the engineers and the company failing to get together on an agreement of facts.

The salary committee of the engineers held a meeting last evening for the purpose of appointing a committee to confer with the company's committee on the facts to be presented to the arbitration board. When the joint committees submit the matters for settlement the third arbitrator will be appointed.

T. S. Choy and No Sang Bong, the Korean couple on trial for adultery for some days past in the United States Court, were convicted by the jury yesterday afternoon after deliberating less than fifteen minutes. Almost all yesterday was consumed in arguments on instructions and to the jury by Attorneys J. J. Dunne and W. J. Rawlins for the prosecution and T. M. Harrison for the defendants. Choy was formerly Korean interpreter in the court in which he has been convicted. Sentences will be pronounced later.

COWBOY STOPS RUNAWAY.

The chance to demonstrate how to stop runaways came to Jim Stevens, one of the cowboys who are here to take part in the Wild West show yesterday. A Chinese laundry man was loading a pile of clothes in his wagon yesterday afternoon at the corner of Emma and School streets. In loading the wagon one of the bundles rolled over and struck the horse on the back. Immediately the horse took fright and started on a mad gallop down School street towards Nuuanu. Stevens was riding along School street when he heard the noise of the frightened horse, and saw the wild antics of the driver in a futile effort to stop the horse. A second or so afterwards the runaway was a-beam of him, Stevens dug his spurs into his horse and wheeled around in a stern chase to stop the horse if possible. Just before the corner of Nuuanu was reached, Stevens leaned over and grabbed the horse's bridle and prevented an accident which might have been very serious.

S. S. ENTERPRISE

Castle & Cooke, local agents of the Matsun Navigation Company, have received cable advice to the effect that the S. S. Enterprise sailed from San Francisco for Honolulu direct, this morning, as scheduled.

The Enterprise is due to arrive at Honolulu on the morning of the 19th and as a large number of Christmas orders were placed for this vessel, it will be a matter of considerable convenience to the merchants and consignees of this city to have their orders in hand for the Christmas trade.

The Enterprise will be dispatched from Honolulu to Hilo probably on the evening of the 19th inst., and as this vessel proceeds direct and can accommodate a number of passengers, the opportunity will be taken advantage of to travel by the Enterprise by numerous people intending to spend the holiday season on the island of Hawaii.

Castle & Cooke, Ltd., have also received cable advice that the S. S. Hilonian arrived in San Francisco early this morning.

MANY PRISONERS
SENTENCED TODAY

This morning was sentence day in the United States Court for a number of convicted prisoners.

T. S. Choy and No Sang Bong, the two Koreans convicted yesterday of adultery were each given four months sentence in prison and fined the costs of the prosecution. The couple were married, but the woman has a husband already living from whom she neglected to get a divorce. She denied on the witness stand that she was married to the man claimed to be her first husband, and reiterated the statement this morning at the time she was sentenced. It was shown, however, that she had lived with him for many years, and had had four children born of him.

I. Mori, the Japanese merchant convicted of passing a $10 counterfeit gold piece, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment. His light sentence was doubtless due to the fact that Judge Dole was not satisfied in his own mind that intent to defraud was present in the transaction in which Mori was implicated, and also from the fact that the health of the accused was testified to be very poor by a physician.

Jennie Kekauoha, who pleaded guilty to perjury in connection with the trial of her husband George Kekauoha for adultery with another woman, and in which she strove to shield him by false swearing, had her sentence continued for one month. It is stated that an effort will be made to get the woman out of jail as soon as possible, since she seems to have been a victim of circumstances to a large degree. Her husband a few days ago at the time she pleaded guilty begged to be allowed to serve her sentence for her. This is the case which has been known as the Mormon case from the religion professed by all the parties to it, and from the part taken in the proceedings by the Mormon Church of Aiea, which has resulted in the head of the local organization being indicted for subornation of perjury and a number of other members for perjury or other offenses.
